PRACTICAL

Reception

Your activity takes place during the opening hours of JES:

The group leader reports to reception. Someone will accompany you to open the premises and provide the necessary explanations.

Your activity takes place outside JES opening hours:

- (a) you come to collect the key in advance and you will receive an explanation from one of our employees;
- (b) the janitor will receive you and let you into the premises.

The group leader is responsible for receiving the other participants. To this end, an access code is given that may be shared with the group members.

Material

Requested material will be placed in the reserved room by our employees. If anything is missing, please contact the employees of the JES Sleep Inn. They will be happy to help you.

Deliveries

If meals or other deliveries are planned, please notify the JES Sleep Inn staff in advance. Notify the reception on arrival about the planned delivery and the probable delivery time. You will be notified upon delivery and we ask you to pick up the delivered goods yourself at the reception.

Accessibility

With the exception of the Terrace, the buildings of JES are wheelchair accessible.

Multimedia

There is free Wi-Fi throughout the building and all our meeting rooms are equipped with a Beamer and projection screen.

You can always contact the staff of the JES Sleep Inn with all other practical questions.
